

Sponsored by:

Q2 and Beyond

How money, opportunity and politics effect your climb

Join us for this meaningful discussion on where our economy is headed and how you can put your business in a position to win. Expect hyper local insights in a global perspective. With the first quarter behind us, we will be analyzing the future economic climate and see what it means for you.

Topics to be presented include:

- The Healthcare Affordability Act
- Current unemployment rates and how it is trending
- The consumer price index from our local counties
- Inflation predictions
- Commercial real estate challenges
- Residential housing
- The election impact
- Hot Industries
- What does it all mean for you?

May 2nd 2013

Location: University of Phoenix
4500 Salisbury Road Jacksonville, FL 32216

- 8:00 Registration and networking
8:30 Presentation begins
10:00 Q & A
10:30 Program ends

Cost $25 ~ No Charge for Students

Register online at: www.advantagebizmag.com/events
or by phone at 904-222-8140

About the speaker PAUL M. MASON, Ph.D.

Dr. Paul M. Mason a the Professor of Economics and founder of the Leading Economic indicator Project, a funded project designed to educate private and public sectors in the economic climate.. He completed his Ph.D. in Economics at the University of Texas in 1984 while teaching economics at Southwest Texas State University for four years; and he taught finance at Clemson University for one year before he began his employment at the University of North Florida in 1985. Dr. Mason progressed through the academic ranks and became a full professor in 1994 and an endowed professor in 2009. Dr. Mason became chairman of the Department of in May 2002 and continued in that capacity until June 2011.

Dr. Mason is a co-author of the book "The Economic Consequences of State Lotteries" and more than 40 articles regarding numerous topics in economics including lotteries, casino gaming, banking structure, economics education, the economics profession, gasoline pricing, and publication delays. Dr. Mason is also very active in the community in consulting involving statistics, economics, and as an expert witness in litigation involving economic damages.

ADVANTAGE

BUSINESS MAGAZINE