

The Future of Technology in the Workplace

There was a time when fax machines and e-mails were considered cutting-edge technology. They were tools that transformed how people do business. Curious what's next? What resources will you have at your disposal to help you get the job done?

January 25, 2011

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: My Executive Center at 4600 Touchton Road, Bldg. 100 Suite 150, Jacksonville

Cost: $25 (includes lunch)

Expect to learn:

- ❖ Cloud computing defined
- ❖ Capabilities of tomorrow's mobile devices
- ❖ The impact of social media
- ❖ QR codes and what it means to you
- ❖ The new virtual workspace
- ❖ Other technology advances you haven't heard about

Donny Lamey is President & CEO of DiscoverTec, LLC. He started the company in 1993, incorporated in 1994 and launched the web application development division in 1995. For the past 15 years, DiscoverTec has been a leading technology services company and has been selected as one of the fastest growing companies 3 years in a row. Prior to founding DiscoverTec, Donny graduated from the University of West Florida with a degree in Management Information Systems. Donny was the founder of other companies including The Lloyd Williams Foundation, My Executive Center, and The Victory Marketing Team.

Andy Stack is principal of My Executive Centers and considered an authority in cutting-edge, modern workplaces. As a visionary, he continually looks for ways to gain efficiency in business to business environments. He is among the first to offer bundled services to executive clients that include training facilities complete with modern video conferencing, state-of-the-art telecommunications systems, customized web design and marketing among others.

JACKSONVILLE

Brought to you by:

ADVANTAGE

SMALL BUSINESS

Register online at www.advantagebizmag.com/events or call 904-651-7976. Space limited to 40 people.