

Tee-up Your Spring Golf Season

Build better relationships by combining business and pleasure

May 17th, 2013 ~ Bring your clubs

Doing Business on the Golf Course

Dust off your cleats and shine those clubs because warmer weather is on the way. This is about to get fun. Grab your favorite coworker or client and meet us out at the course for a unique networking event that will be the most fun you have had in a while. Join us for an out of the ordinary event in a relaxed, non-threatening atmosphere. True bonds will be formed, but do you have the right skills?

Join us for the most fun professional development there is
