

BUSINESS SUCCESS EXPO 2013

TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR PROFESSIONAL DESTINY

The days of working 20+ years for the same employer and collecting your gold watch are gone forever. Even historically stable positions with government and industry titans are a thing of the past.

If you are concerned about your own job security or have even been displaced yourself, this workshop is for you. Even if you are just unhappy in your current position, join us for this one-of-a kind informative event.

Learn the steps you can take to gain control of your professional destiny!

In recent years, our economy has been difficult, but thousands have decided that they no longer want to have their future controlled by someone else. Join us for a unique LIVE event to learn what you can do to take control. Hear from a panel of experts on business ownership and meet influential franchisors in your community. Be your own boss and decide your future. Participate in Break Out sessions to get a more intimate experience with business opportunities of your choosing.

Keynote Speaker: Marshall Reddy

Stop trying to climb the corporate ladder, and create one of your own. For more than 20 years, Marshall Reddy has spoken to thousands of people to help them discover business ownership as an alternative to traditional employment. And he's bringing his experience and insight to this forum. Mr. Reddy will talk about the businesses that are booming in a down economy. He'll address commonly held misconceptions about franchising. And he'll discuss the pros and cons of several types of businesses. Mr. Reddy, a principal in FranNet, works with the most respected franchise companies across the country to find the ideal fit for you and your goals. If you've ever considered business ownership as a way to escape corporate America, Mr. Reddy will answer all your questions.
